Abra Dzaye

Kokomo High School Class of 2018 graduate Abra Dzaye, plans to attend the University of Indianapolis to study nursing, after being inspired by the need for better healthcare in her native Togo, a west African nation. Abra, the daughter of Kwami Lamadokou and Emefa Amegbo, took advantage of the College Preparatory Academy at KHS by taking seven Advanced Placement courses, which allowed her to earn 14 college credits. The Richard Lugar Academic Scholarship recipient appreciated the opportunity to take high school courses while at Maple Crest Middle School. These courses allowed the Girls' League member the freedom to pursue more college-level courses at Kokomo High School. The National Honor Society member took pride in leading the Pledge of Allegiance each morning at KHS. As a trilingual student, Abra used her language skills to help her peers as a Bridges Outreach mentor. The Softball Manager thanked AP Literature Teacher Ms. Jenifer Scott for helping Abra become a better writer by "offering me support and increasing my confidence." The KHS Class of 2018 Treasurer also thanked her father because his "motivation to move to America and obtain a better education inspired me to achieve my dreams."
