Jacob Ashburn

Kokomo High School Class of 2018 graduate Jacob Ashburn plans to attend Indiana University Bloomington as a direct admit into the Kelley School of Business. Jacob, the son of Amy Neiheisel and Damon Ashburn, hopes to pursue a career in business, and then in 2036 transition into politics, with the goal of becoming the President of the United States. The Lilly Endowment Scholar and Indiana University Provost Scholarship recipient is an International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma candidate. The Advanced Placement (AP) Scholar with Honor completed eight AP courses, including Calculus AB & BC, Statistics, and Physics I & II, to further his interest in mathematics. The KHS Student Council member is a product of Sycamore Elementary and Central Middle School and the KEY High Ability program, which Jacob believes "made a positive impact academically by pushing me to be the best I could be." The Future Business Leaders of America Indiana State Reporter earned three 1st place awards and eight Top 10 awards at the FBLA State Conference competitions. The National Honor Society member thanked Sycamore Elementary Media Clerk Terri Pace for "teaching me to love reading."

Onward Kokomo!

Kokomo High School is definitely on the move, and celebrating student successes! The KHS Class of 2018 has earned $4.6 million in scholarships to post-secondary institutions, including two full-tuition awards to Harvard University and numerous prestigious universities.

The KHS College Prep Academy features 25 Advanced Placement (AP) courses (corporation-paid AP exam fees), an authorized International Baccalaureate (IB) program, Project Lead the Way engineering courses, and award-winning Music and Arts programs.

Congrats to all KHS graduates! If you would like to join the KHS academic family, please contact Principal Angela Blessing via email at ablessing@kokomo.k12.in.us
